

Nicole A. Silver

PHILADELPHIA, PA

Nicole A. Silver is a partner in the firm's Philadelphia office. She concentrates her practice in the defense of insured and self-insured entities in workers' compensation matters.

Prior to joining Cipriani & Werner, she handled workers' compensation matters at a large Philadelphia-based insurance defense firm.

Ms. Silver is admitted to practice in both Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and is a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

She is a 2004 graduate of the University of Maryland where she received her bachelors degree in Business Management from the Robert H. Smith School of Business. While in college, Ms. Silver was a member of the Scholastic Honor Collegiate Society and Phi Sigma Theta National Society for excellence in academics. She received her law degree from Widener University School of Law in Delaware in 2007.

While attending law school, Ms. Silver was a member of the Moot Court Appellate Advocacy Honor Society and worked at the Chester County District Attorney's Office as a Certified Legal Intern where she handled preliminary hearings and other criminal proceedings. Following law school, Ms. Silver served as a Judicial Clerk for the Honorable Michael A. Donio of the Atlantic County Superior Court, Criminal Division.
